We begin the day with a drive to Yamadwar, the gateway to the sacred Mount Kailash. From here, we start the first day of the Kailash Kora (circumambulation), trekking toward Diraphuk. This is one of the most exciting and visually stunning days of the journey.

The trail winds along dramatic rocky cliffs, cascading waterfalls, and serene landscapes, often set beneath a clear blue sky with occasional drifting clouds. As you walk, you'll be treated to breathtaking views of the majestic north face of Mount Kailash—one of the most revered sights of the pilgrimage. The trek covers approximately 12 kilometers and typically takes around 7 hours to complete at a steady pace. Overnight stay at Diraphuk.

DAY 7

Trek to Zuthulphuk (4790m) via Dolma La Pass (5630m)

The journey begins with a steep ascent from Diraphuk to Dolma La Pass (5,630 meters), the highest point of the entire trek, followed by a steep descent to Zuthulphuk. Dolma La holds deep spiritual significance—Buddhists associate it with the goddess Tara, while Hindus revere it as the realm of Parvati, the divine consort of Lord Shiva. At the pass, pilgrims and trekkers often hang Tibetan prayer flags as a symbol of their achievement. Upon reaching the summit, take a moment for sacred offerings or quiet meditation to connect with the spiritual energy of the place. As you descend, you'll pass by Parvati-sthal and the sacred Gauri Kund. After covering approximately 22 kilometers, you will arrive at Zuthulphuk by late afternoon. Overnight stay in Zuthulphuk.

Last day of Kailash Kora: Trek to Mani Wall, near Darchen and drive to Saga (4640m)

After trekking the final 8 Km from Zuthulphuk to the roadhead near Darchen, we will complete the Mount Kailash Kora. The trail is gentle and scenic, offering time for spiritual reflection. Then, we will drive back to Saga, retracing the route across the Tibetan plateau. After 7-8 hours of drive, we will reach our hotel in Saga where we rest and recover.

Drive back to Kyirong (2700m)

We will drive back to Kyirong, crossing through scenic Himalayan landscapes. The gradual descent brings physical relief. Upon reaching Kyirong, we can have shopping or walk around the peaceful border town. Overnight in Kyirong.
